

REBELSTAR

LOOKING AT THIS PICTURE, THERE IS NO DENYING THAT REBELSTAR CONSISTS OF 4 INDIVIDUAL CHARACTERS. BUT... WITH ONE THING IN COMMON AND THAT IS TO ROCK VERY HARD IN THIS AGE OF DISPOSABLE POPSTARS.

Starting out as a collaboration of Serge Naberman & Martijn Niggebrugge, it was very clear that there was no turning back from the path they had chosen as their musical direction: oldskool Hardrock with influences of today's Rock and Metal. Great melodic rock with heavy and catchy guitar riffs and solid vocal harmonies.

Since the release of their debut album in 2010, there is no denying that Rebelstar proved themselves as a living and breathing rock machine. From sharing the stage with bands like King's X (USA), Helloween (DE) and Vicious Rumors (USA) to playing on the prestigious Masters of Rock festival (CZ), Rebelstar pioneered by putting authentic Hardrock back on the map.

In summer 2013, after recruiting a new pounding rhythm section and with renewed inspiration, they had only one goal: going back to the recording studios to top their debut album. They succeeded, and how...!

The Rebelstar II album got great reviews from renowned magazines, blogs and websites all over the world.

Ten brand new songs, musically diverse and with a strong, modern production: Rebelstar took this album to the next level. With guest appearances of Sleeze Beez' Andrew Elt and Chriz van Jaarsveld giving it an additional sleezy touch. Check out their killer Youtube singles 'Sick M.F.' and its follow-up 'Big, Bang, Boom' both taken from the Rebelstar II album.

2015 sees the band gigging harder than ever and working on their third album, due for release at the end of the year. The upcoming album will again hold some surprising and unexpected collaborations so be prepared!
